Study group sets charter hearing

Five proposed charter amendments will be presented by the Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Study Commission at a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. today in the courthouse courtroom.

Residents are invited to attend to provide input on the proposed charter amendments which include:

- No. 1: Requiring all county boards to be created by ordinance with specific retirements;
- No. 2: Amending the

Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Charter to give the veto power to the chief executive, subject to commission override.

- No. 3: Eliminate the Joint Advisory Council and change the method of filling vacancies on the county commission.

- No. 4: Changing the position of county attorney from partisan to non-partisan.

- No. 5: Define the duties and limitations for the chief of law enforcement.
